Computer-Based Test (CBT) Guidelines
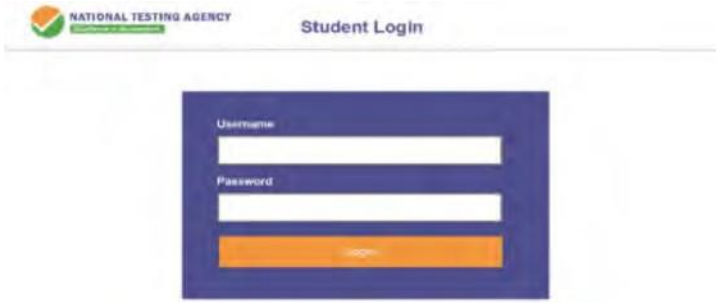

The major examinations being conducted by NTA are Computer-Based Tests (CBT). A CBT requires candidates to sit in front of a computer terminal (node) allocated to them against their Roll number and Admit card. After logging the candidate will get detailed instructions for the examinations. At the designated time of the start of the examination, the candidates will be able to proceed and see the questions on the computer screen using the computer mouse. Candidates will have the option to change/modify/edit/answers already entered at any time during the examination.

Procedure for appearing in Computer Based Test (CBT):

(Sample/mock test will be available on the NTA website: www.nta.ac.in for hands-on practice)

(a) A computer terminal (node) indicating Roll Number will be allocated to each candidate. Candidates should find and sit on their allocated computers only. Any candidate found to have changed room/hall or the computer on their own other than the one allotted would lead to cancellation of candidature and no plea in this regard would be entertained.

(b) For login, the candidate will have to enter a login ID and password. The computer terminal allotted to the candidate will display the WELCOME login screen, Candidate's photograph, and NET subject opted by the candidate.

Candidate Login Page

Candidate Welcome Screen

(a) After login, the candidate shall be able to see the detailed instructions for the examination. Candidates are advised to go through the instructions carefully regarding the type of questions and marking scheme. At the designated time of the start of the examination, the candidates will be able to proceed and see the questions on the computer screen.

Please read the instructions carefully
General Instructions

1. The total duration of the examination is as indicated on the Admit Card issued by theNTA.

2. The clock will be set on the server. The countdown timer on the top right corner of the screen will display the remaining available time for you to complete the examination. When the timer reaches zero, the examination will end by itself and you will not be required to end or submit your examination.

3. The Question Palette displayed on the left side of the screen will show the status of each question using one of the following symbols:

4. The Marked for Review status for a question simply indicates that you would like to look at that question again. Questions that are answered and "Marked for Review" will be automatically saved and evaluated even if the flag is not removed.

5. The questions and answer options will be displayed in English and the chosen language. For any doubt or clarification, you are requested to refer to the English version as the final.

   Navigating to a Question:

6. To navigate between questions within a Paper, the candidate needs to do the following:

   • Click on the question number in the Question Palette at the left of your screento go to that question directly in the corresponding section. Note that using

The different symbols used in the test are shown below. Please go through them and understand their meanings before you start the test.

Symbol	Description
⌒	Option Not chosen
⦿	Option chosen as correct (By clicking on it again you can delete your option and choose another option if desired.)
12	Question number shown in blue color indicates that you have not yet attempted the question.
13	Question number shown in green color indicates that you have answered the question.
14	You have not yet answered the question, but marked it for coming back for review later, if time permits.
15	You have answered the question, but marked it for review later, if time permits.
>	Clicking on this will take you to the next question.
<	Clicking on this will take you to the previous question.
Mark for review	By clicking on this button, you can mark the question for review later. Please note that if you answer the question and mark for review, the question will be treated as answered and evaluated even if you do not review it.
Unmark for review	By clicking on this button, you can unmark the question for review this option does NOT save your answer to the current question.

- You can click on the ⊘ arrow on the top of the question window to go to the next question. You can click on the ⊘ which appears on the left side of the question window for going back to the previous question.
- Your answer to a question is automatically saved when you click on the ⊘ button on the top right-hand corner of the question window. Please note that there is no separate SAVE button.

Answering a Question:

7.   Procedure for answering a Multiple-Choice Type question:

- To select your answer, click on the ⌒ button of one of the options.
- To de-select your chosen answer, click on ⦿ the button of the chosen option again.
- To change your chosen answer, click ⦿ on the button of another option.
- You can Mark for review click on the top left-hand side of the question window when you want to come back to that question later on, whether you have answered it or not, and proceed to other questions.
- When you answer any question "Marked for review", the status of the question changes automatically to "Answered".
- You can click on Unmark for review when you want to change the status and freeze the answer already given or answer the question.

8.   To change your answer to a question that has already been answered, first select that question for answering and then follow the procedure for answering that type of question.

Navigating through sections:

9. Sections in this question paper are displayed on the left-hand side of the screen. Questions in a section can be viewed by clicking on the section name.

10. After clicking the button on the last question for a section, you will automatically be taken to the first question of the next section.

11. You can shuffle between sections and questions anytime during the examination as per your convenience only during the time stipulated.

12. You can view the section summary as part of the legend that appears in every sectionbelow the question palette.

Instruction for Question:

13. For the correctness of the translation for a particular language, only the English version will be considered as the final version for evaluation purposes.

The keyboard attached to the computer, if any, will be disabled during the entire duration of the examination. Candidates will have the option to change/modify answers already entered anytime during the entire duration of the examination.

In case the computer/mouse allotted to any candidate malfunctions anytime during the test, he/she will be immediately allotted another computer system and the time lost due to this will be adjusted in the server so as to give the candidate the full allotted time.

The on-screen computer clock counter of every candidate will be set at the server. The countdown timer on the top right side of the computer screen will display the time remaining (in minutes) available for the candidate to complete the examination. When the timer reaches zero, the examination will end by itself. The candidates will not be required to end or submit the examination.

The Question Status displayed on the bottom left screen will show the status of each question using one of the following symbols:

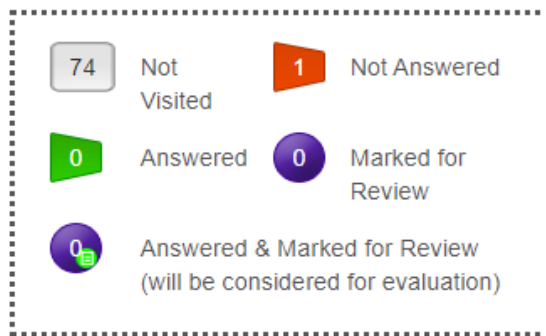

The question(s) "Answered and Marked for Review" status for a question indicates that the candidates would like to have a relook at that question again. A candidate has the option of answering a question and simultaneously "Marked for Review", these answers will be considered for evaluation. However, if a candidate has simply put "Marked for Review" for a question without answering it, the corresponding question marked for review without an answer will not be considered for evaluation. It may be noted that a candidate can return to any "Marked for Review" question any time during the examination by clicking on the corresponding question number icon displayed on the Question Palette of the corresponding section.
